

Day Four

Seneca Lake Ride

Great places to eat can be found in Buffalo/Senecaville
Check them out on your way!

From Cambridge and Interstate 77

Heading South on I-77 (approx 7 -10 miles South of the City of Cambridge)

- Take the Route 313 Seneca Lake (Buffalo) exit.
At end of ramp, turn left onto Route 313, (get gas now if you need it) and follow to Senecaville.
- At the 4-way stop in Senecaville, turn right onto Route 285.
- Turn Left onto Route 566 (approx 1-mile beyond the 4-way stop)
- Turn Left onto Route 147 at end of Route 566. (watch for some occasional gravel).
- Follow Route 147. You will see the lake and ride over a bridge.
- From this point, continue onward and you will find Route 313 again, taking you around the lake, and back around to Senecaville, Buffalo and I-77.

Ride for a couple of hours, ride all day, find enjoyable activities from camping to fishing to boating to birding, to hiking, to eating. Enjoy the wildlife, beautiful fall foliage, or just a relaxing ride around the lake and vicinity.
