
Guernsey County to Participate in Historic National Road Yard Sale

Cambridge, Ohio (May 24, 2010) – Created in 2006 by Patricia McDaniel of Dublin Indiana, the Historic National Road Yard

Sale provides individuals with the opportunity to reconnect with their past along America's first interstate, The National Road/ Route 40. It also provides opportunities to share thoughts with people along the route, sample local foods and troll for (or sell) bargains. Antiques, glassware, furniture, fresh garden produce plus other collectibles are available along this 824 mile stretch from Baltimore to St. Louis June 2-6, 2010. McDaniel, an avid "hunter of bargains" and owner of Old Store Antiques, has visited Cambridge several times and offers this explanation for the ambitious yard sale, "Individuals have the opportunity to traverse a historic byway, feel the pulse of individual communities, sample regional food, and simply enjoy the "thrill of the hunt"!

Locally, two venues along the National Road are holding organized yard sales. Downtown Cambridge will hold theirs on Saturday, June 5 from 9am – 5pm between 6th Street and 9th Streets on Wheeling Avenue. Participating groups include the YMCA, Pleasant Valley Homemakers, Feed My People, Relay for Life Teams, Guernsey County CASA program, Thompkins Center, Cambridge Area Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis, and the Open Arms Pregnancy Center. The local merchants who will be participating also are Country Bits & Pieces, Penny Court Antique Mall, Community Treasures, Dominos Pizza, The Towne House Gifts, Donley's Hallmark, Goat Hill Collectibles', Main Street School Supply, Attic Trunk, and Cambridge Enterprises. For more information, contact Debbie Mosser at The Towne House 740-439-4778 or debbiemosser@gmail.com

In the pike town of Old Washington, their plans for the National Road Yard Sale include a Flea Market and will take place June 4 and 5 from 8am – 3pm each day at the Guernsey County Fairgrounds. For more information contact 740-255-8018 or guernseycountyfairgrounds@gmail.com or
